

PRAYERS & LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

BLESSING

M: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God the Father, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

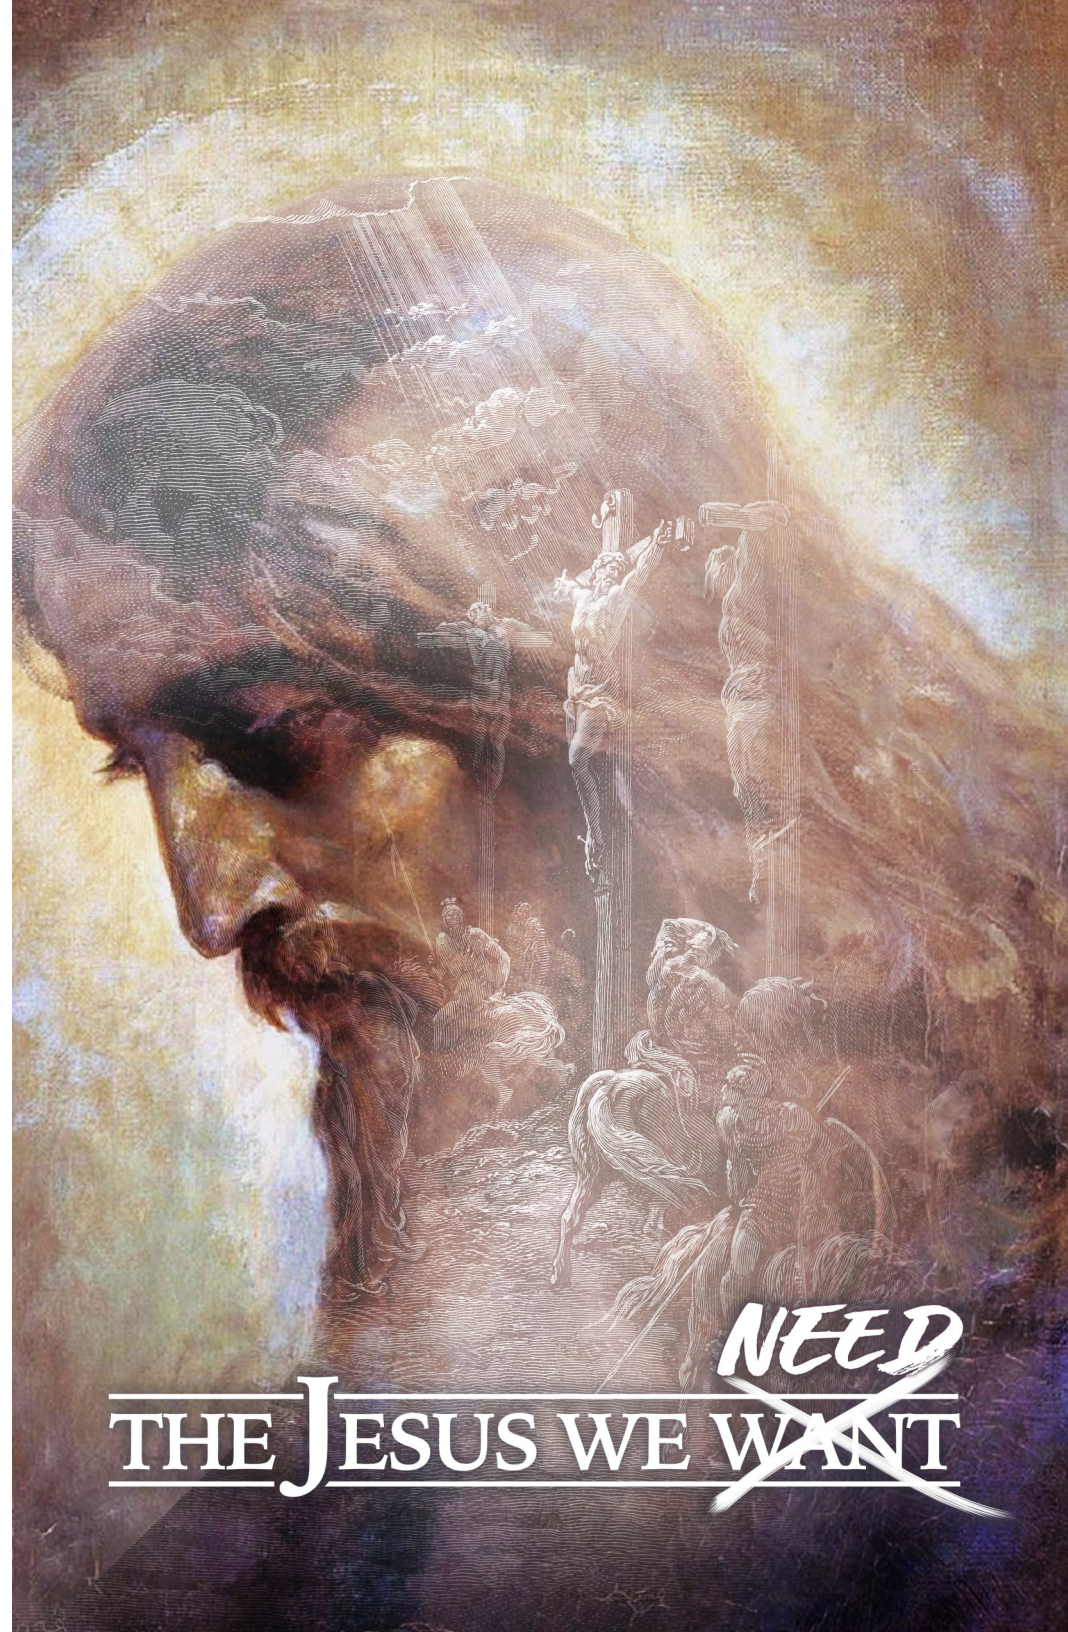

A: Amen

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

“At Crown of Life Lutheran Church our mission is to proclaim forgiveness of sins and eternal life for all through Jesus Christ while providing a fellowship where people of differing backgrounds can serve the Lord as family.”

WELCOME

Minister: We begin in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

All: Amen.

M: When we gather before a Holy God we will see our sinfulness. That’s why we confess our sins and ask for his forgiveness.

CONFESSION

A: Merciful Father, I confess that I am a sinner. I make no excuses. I have sinned against you by the things I have done and the things I have not done. But I know that Jesus died for me. I stand before you in need of, and trusting in, your forgiveness. AMEN

M: God our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and given his Son as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M: Almighty God, we confess that we deserve to be punished for our evil deeds. But we ask you graciously to cleanse us from all sin and to comfort us with your salvation; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

LESSON: John 11:17–27 Someone to Rise for us

17 On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. 18 Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem, 19 and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother. 20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home. 21 “Lord,” Martha said to Jesus, “if you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22 But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask.” 23 Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” 24 Martha answered, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” 25 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; 26 and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?” 27 “Yes, Lord,” she told him, “I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world. 28 Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance. 29 “Take away the stone,” he said. “But, Lord,” said Martha, the sister of the dead man, “by this time there is a bad odor, for he has been there four days.” 30 Then Jesus said, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” 31 So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 32 I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me.” 33 When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” 34 The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face. Jesus said to them, “Take off the grave clothes and let him go.”
